

How do I get to Budweis?

The 6th International Congress about swimming ponds will take place in Ceske Budejovice (Budweis) from September 28 - 30. The town in South Bohemia is wonderful, but just not quite easy to get there. To turn this disadvantage into an advantage, the Organizing Committee of the Congress, together with the German Association for natural bathing waters and the Association of Austrian swimming pond builders, identifies three rally routes. At September 26th many of the conference participants will get by bus from Munich, Vienna or Graz to Budweis. On the tours, many public and private swimming ponds will be visited - in this way the journey is already part of the Congress. On October 1st all buses will return to their starting point.
